Wellbeing and Mental Health

The wellbeing of our students and staff is paramount. The school is located within beautiful parkland, allowing for lunchtime walks and visits to the school Café, as well as access to a variety of local shops and eateries just a few minutes' walk away. It is a lovely feeling to be in the middle of the local community in which we have many charity partners. We have an active wellbeing staff committee who organise different staff events such as quizzes and staff breakfasts. We also have a dedicated Wellbeing room which staff can access any time they need to take some time out, or to use as a payer of reflection space.

We have signed the DfE's Education Staff Wellbeing Charter, a declaration of support for, and a set of commitments, to the wellbeing and mental health of everyone working in education. In addition, we have created our own wellbeing charter. The Marlborough Wellbeing charter below takes into consideration the measures we have in place across the school to support all staff and also emphasizes the extra pressures many of our staff face associated with working in a Special Education setting. Our Wellbeing charter includes measures that encompass areas such as support, flexibility, community, benefits and commitment.

What do our students think

Students say they feel happy and safe at school. They commonly associate these positive feelings with supportive relationships involving teachers, friends, teaching assistants, parents and family members, the bus driver, and engaging school activities like lunch clubs, swimming, music, and dance. Students use symbols and gestures to express themselves. Staff support student voice through observations of their reactions too.

I smiled and reached out for resources, such as the peacock feather at the circus. I danced with the African dancer, and loved listening to the bassoon in our LSO session. I gave eye contact and rocked my head side to side to show my enjoyment. I played with junk instruments at junk orchestra, and listened to staff play.

What do our staff think?

"The students are amazing and it's my privilege to work with them and their families"

"Working at Marlborough is a great opportunity to work in a lovely and local environment where professional development opportunities are given to all staff"

"Seeing the progress students make is really fulfilling, and I love working within a dedicated staff team"

"One of my favourite things is going to the Café when our students are doing work experience and dealing with the local community too – it's great to feel part of!"

What do our parents think?

"I am truly grateful for all your support and after the experiences I have had with previous schools in the past, it was really lovely to have a school that was so open to work so closely with my daughter and I"

"Thank you for only seeing the best in my son"

"My family and I would like to say thank you for being so supportive we are very grateful"

"I wanted to say thank you to you and Marlborough School for all you have done for my daughter. We loved the prom and sports day and thanks for facilitating overnight."

Quotes from Challenge Partners Quality Assurance Review (March 2025)

"Every moment is a learning opportunity is the vision that is evident throughout the school, whether it is in the classroom, community partnerships or break times. It lends to a calm, purposeful learning environment which exudes joy and exuberance from staff for their pupils."

"Pupils are supported by a highly skilled workforce to develop a range of skills to prepare pupils for adulthood."

"Professional development for all staff is impressive. Coaching is being rolled out across the school. Meetings are organised on a coaching model so that staff become more reflective practitioners and come to solutions themselves."
